STARS AND STRIPES ACHIEVE TRIUMPH AT OLYMPIC GAMES

Two Notable Victories Won by American Athletes, Craig Capturing Final of the 100-Metres Dash and Thorp Taking the Pentathlon, a Series of Five Events. Intended to Be a Test of All-Round Prowess-Sunday's Contests Opened With Prayer and Sermon.

Stockholm, Sweden, July 7.- The American athletes won two notable victories at the Olympic games to-day. R. C. Craig, of the Detroit Y. M. C. A., captured the final of the 100 metres dash, while James Thorp, of the Carlisle Indian School, won the Pen-

The Stars and Stripes achieved a triumph to-day never before vitnessed on an international athletic field. Three flag staffs are American flag went up on the first staff, on the second and on the third. Craig, A. T. Meyer, Irish-American Athletic Club, and D. F. Lippincott, University of Pennsylvania, were the menthey represented. Craig's time, 104-5 seconds, equals the Olym-

Only one other number on the program was concluded to That was the Pentathlon, which was intended to be a test of all-round prowess. When this event was included in the Olympic games conservative old-timers, both English and Ameriwho heretofore had dominated the field sports, regarded it with suspicion as a trick of thenew-comers to gain points which vere not contemplated in the original program.

The United States got the lion's share of the glory from that also. At its conclusion the first and third statis floated American flags and the second Norway. The Indian Thorn, by his victory, won his position as the legitimate successor of Martin J. Sheridan as an all-round athlete. Of those who entered this competition, the four Americans. Thorp, Brunagee, Donoghue and Menaul, started in all the events and staved to the end, with the Norwegian Bie, the Canadian Lukeman and the Swede Wieslander.
